PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

MARKETING BRAND COORDINATOR | FAMILY FARM & HOME 08/2025 – Present Muskegon, MI

Member of the corporate marketing team responsible for developing, editing, and submitting promotional marketing campaigns and product marketing materials for a major agricultural and rural lifestyle retail brand with 80+ locations across five states. Maintain brand strategy and corporate branding standards across catalogs, print collateral, in-store signage, direct mail, email, and digital assets.

- Lead creative development for Family Deals of the Week promotional campaigns, producing cohesive print and digital assets including handouts, in-store signage, and email marketing campaigns.
- Design and produce 10–16 page promotional catalogs and monthly 2-page promotional handouts using Adobe Creative Suite (InDesign, Illustrator), managing revisions and approvals through multiple proofing stages to ensure accuracy, brand consistency, and print readiness.
- Spearheaded the rebrand of weekly promotional and recurring email campaigns, launching with the Memorial Day campaign, to improve brand consistency and customer engagement.
- Design, build, and manage email marketing campaigns in Mailchimp, creating visually engaging layouts that hold to brand standards while optimizing promotional messaging.
- Manage the print production and proofing workflow in partnership with the internal marketing team and RR Donnelley (RRD), ensuring quality control and on-time delivery.
- Partnered with RR Donnelley to develop and implement point-of-purchase (POP) storefront materials rolled out across 80+ retail locations in five states.
- Partner with Merchant Buyers to strategically select promotional products that maximize sales performance and drive in-store traffic; participate in weekly merchandising meetings to review catalog and handout proofs and align marketing initiatives with business objectives.
- Collaborate with the Social Media Manager and internal marketing teams in weekly creative planning sessions to develop content strategies aligned with active advertising campaigns, seasonal promotions, and industry trends.
- Integrate AI tools (Adobe Firefly, ChatGPT, Claude) into creative workflows to adapt brand imagery, generate supporting assets where existing photography is unavailable, and accelerate copywriting and concept ideation.

SOCIAL MEDIA & MARKETING INTERN | THE FLOURISH SOCIETY 04/2024 – 08/2024 Holland, MI

- Developed and scheduled multi-platform content calendars over a 3-month period, contributing to a 25% increase in engagement through data-driven social media strategy.
- Wrote press releases and strategic content aligned with brand voice and outreach goals.
- Produced visual content using Canva and Adobe tools, contributing to campaign cohesion across platforms.
- Participated in cross-functional workshops to align messaging and marketing efforts across teams.
